THANKSGIVING GAME.

Seniors and Juniors Play the Game of The Season.

SCORE 6 TO 0, IN FAVOR OF SENIORS.

A great amount of interest has been shown in the class games this year, and so when the Seniors lined up against the Juniors for the championship of the college there was an unusually large and enthusiastic crowd present.

The sponsors were Miss Mary Thomas and Miss Julia Moore for the Senior team, and Misses Kate Lottie Lane for the Juniors.

The game was well played, both sides being quite evenly matched, and there was very little if any fudging.

The game was called at 3:25. Capt. Abernathy wins the toss and poses the west goal. Wheeler kicks for 40 yards, the ball is not caught and rolls to the Seniors' yard line, where C. W. Stewart picks it up and advances it 4 yards.

The teams line up on the Senior's yard line, and Dixon is sent through center for 4 yards, Abernathy through left tackle for 5 yards, Dickey right tackle for 4 yards. Then Haralson with beautiful interference skirts left end 25 yards. Dickey tries right tackle for no gain. Dixon center the same result. Third down 5 yards, W. Stewart is given the ball, Vischer breaks through and tackles him with a loss of 6 yards. Ball goes over. Rush for Juniors goes through left tackle 14 yards.

Vischer at the same place with gain. Rush completes the five going through center.

Then Newman is given the ball and breaks through left tackle for 10 yards and what would have been touch-down, had it not been for Wheeler's foul interference, which opened in this way, Newman with a clear field before him is pursued by Dixon, when Wheeler makes the foul. The ball has been carried safely between the goal posts, but is called back to the 12 yard line and given to the Seniors. It is said for the Juniors, that all probability had it not been for Capt. Wheeler's act the touch-down would have been made, as Dixon was at some distance from the runner when fouled.

Senior's ball. Quarter back fumbles and tries to advance the ball. Ball goes over. Feagin goes through center for 2 1/2 yards. Rush same place with a gain of 2 yards. Rush failed to gain through center, and the ball is again '98's.

Abernathy makes 6 yards over left tackle. Haralson fails to gain. Stewart, W. gets 2 1/2 yards around left end. The ball is passed and no one is there to receive it. "Ship" is downed in his tracks. The ball goes over. Vischer, left end, no gain. Newman, through right tackle for 1 1/2 yards. Vischer again given the ball and goes through center for 1 1/2 yards. The ball goes to the Seniors on downs.

Dixon makes 1 yard through center. Abernathy, left tackle, for 5 yards. Coleman right tackle for 2 1/2 yards. W. Stewart, left end for 1 1/2 yards. Abernathy over left tackle for 7 yards. Haralson tries left end for 4 yards. W. Stewart, right end for 10 yards. Paden, left tackle for 4 yards. Coleman right tackle for 3 yards. Haralson is given the ball and starts for left end, but is tackled by Vischer, who breaks through the line, with a loss of 5 yards.

Abernathy by means of the running wheel gains 6 yards over left tackle.

Ball goes over, for Seniors holding in line.

Newman, left tackle, for 5 yards. Rush goes through center for 2 yards and then tries the same place for another gain of 2 yards.

Newman fails to gain. Quarter back fumbles and Feagin falls on ball with loss of 2 yards. Fenn is sent at right tackle for 3 yards. Senior's ball. Dickey goes over right tackle for 2 yards. Dixon goes over right guard for 3 yards. Abernathy around left end for 7 yards.

Half closes with ball on Junior's 45 yard line.

2nd half—Pettus kicks off to the 10 yard line, but the ball is called back, for off-side. Then he again kicks for 25 yards, Wheeler catches and returns it 5 yards. Feagin around left end for 1 yard. Then through right guard for 3 yards. Rush in the same place for 3 yards. Vischer, right tackle, for two yards. Rush tries center for 2 yards, and again for 3 yards. Feagin around left end for 2 yards.

Vischer through right tackle for 5 yards. The ball is called back and goes over to the Seniors.

Dixon tries right guard for 3 yards. Abernathy right end for 3 yards. Coleman, left tackle for 4 yards. Dixon, left guard for 3 yards. Dickey right tackle for 10 yards.

Coleman left tackle for 8 yards. Abernathy right tackle for 3 yards. Coleman is again sent over left tackle for 5 yards, and then Abernathy carries the ball over right tackle for 5 yards and a touch-down. Pettus kicks an easy goal.

Wheeler kicks off to the 35 yard line, C. Stewart catches and brings the ball back 14 yards. Abernathy goes over right tackle for 2 yards. Stewart fumbles and Dickey falls on the ball. W. Stewart kicks for 35 yards, but the ball is called back on account of holding in the line. The ball goes over. Vischer gains 9 yards through right tackle, Feagin left tackle for 2 1/2 yards, Vischer right tackle for 8 yards, Feagin left tackle for 2 yards, Rush tries left guard for a gain of 3 yards and then for 1 yard. Vischer makes no gain over right tackle. Rush tries right tackle and loses the ball.

Dixon falls on it, on Seniors 9 yard line. Coleman gains 4 yards through right tackle. Abernathy, 1 yard over the other tackle. Dixon goes through center for 5 yards.

W. Stewart loses 1 1/2 yards. Dickey tries right tackle for 8 yards.

Abernathy left tackle for 5 yard. The ball is fumbled and Coleman falls on it. Coleman makes 6 yards over right tackle. Abernathy drops the ball and Vischer falls on it. Vischer is sent at left end for no gain, and then makes 2 yards through left tackle.

Wheeler kicks for 25 yards, Dixon catches and advances the ball 5 yards. W. Stewart tries right end with a loss of 2 yards, and then he goes through right tackle for 2 yards.

Abernathy goes through left tackle for a gain of 4 yards. Here the game is called with the ball on the Seniors 25 yard line, with the score 6 to 0 in favor of the Seniors.

Theses.

At a recent meeting of the faculty the following regulations were adopted in regard to theses from graduate students and seniors:

1. Theses from graduate students and seniors shall be handed to the committee on theses by April 1. The subject shall be submitted on or before January 1.

2. The committee on theses shall report to the faculty their decision on the English composition; whether satisfactory or not; if satisfactory they shall be referred by the faculty for special examination, to the professor who has charge of the subject or, related subject, on which the thesis is written.

3. The professor to whom the thesis is referred shall report to the faculty the result of this examination by May 1.

4. A student whose thesis has been disapproved by the faculty, or who has failed to submit it for examination by April 1, without satisfactory excuse, will not be admitted to the examination for a degree.

5. Committee on theses with respect to English. Profs. Thach, Petrie and C. H. Ross.

SENIOR-FRESHMAN GAME.

RESULT IN A VICTORY OF 30 TO 0 FOR '98.

The Freshmen in the Face of Overwhelming Odds Put up a Plucky Fight.

The second of the series of class games came off Saturday afternoon Nov. 20th between the Seniors and Freshmen. The result of the game was a foregone conclusion even before the two teams lined up on the gridiron. The Seniors were much heavier and had a great deal more experience than their opponents, so no one doubted but that they could and would win. But let it be said for the Freshmen that they played the genuine article of football, never failing to meet the mighty rushes of '98, and when the ball was in their possession always ready to plunge into that wall of muscle with every determination to advance. Though defeated they played hard, conscientious ball and have nothing of which to be ashamed. Coach Purifoy deserves worlds of praise for the magnificent team work his men put up, it showed plainly his ability to handle a team in the capacity of trainer.

The individual as well as the team work of the Seniors was great. They put up a game such as Auburn's Varsity was capable of doing, scoring five touchdowns; while Pettus with all imaginable ease kicked as many goals. Their work was wonderful. The score was by no means due to the playing of inferior ball by the Freshmen, but to their own superior work. As to the efficient training of Coaches Glenn and Willis the work of their team speaks for them, showing that they not only understood the practical but theoretical playing of football backed up by a knowledge of how to instill it into others.

But for a lack of space we should give a detailed account of the game. There are many brilliant plays that could be mentioned, and there is one especially that must be mentioned or else an injustice would be shown the player who made it.

Captain Huguley of the Freshman team had punted the ball for twenty yards, Dixon, fullback for the Seniors caught the pigskin and with quick dodging and rapid running planted the ball between the goal posts having a seventy-five yard run to his credit.

The following is the line up of both teams.

SENIORS	POSITION	FRESHMEN
NAME		NAME
Coleman	Left end	Harvey
Dickey	Left Tackle	Flemming
Eppes	Left Guard	McCord
Pettus	Center	Andrews
Allen, L. S.	Right Guard	A. Mitchell
Paden	Right Tackle	J. Mitchell
Abernathy (Capt)	Right End	Lombard
Stewart, C. W.	Quarter	Hood
Haralson	Right Half	Huguley Cpt
Stewart, W. L.	Half Back	Skeggs
Dixon	Full Back	Miller

Substitutes for Seniors. Minge, B. O., Gray, Woods, Pow.

Substitutes for Freshmen. Cameron, W. J., Folmar, Martin.

Umpire, Heisman; Referee, Mitcham; Time keepers, Col. Hollis; Linesmen Jenkins and Marcrum.

J. W. Heisman.

"A combination and a form indeed, Where every god did seem to set his seal, To give the world assurance of a man."

He is gone, but the good that he has done lives after him. On Saturday last our beloved coach and trainer left for other fields of labor.

His name is indissolubly linked with Auburn's gridiron history; and will be handed down to the future along with the proud record of our stalwart warriors, as the general that controlled and directed our victorious forces.

Full of indefatigable energy and endless resources, he commanded the unbounded admiration and love of his friends, and the fear and respect of his opponents.

For three successive seasons he has been our pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night," and, as we all know, his has been no flowery bed of ease. But, notwithstanding the numerous obstacles which filled his path, his great ability has conquered and Auburn's Varsity now rests on the pedestal of Southern admiration and praise.

The curtain has been suddenly drawn on our football stage and old Auburn's champion Varsity has now gone glimmering through the dream of things that were." Heisman's stern "Line-up!" is no longer heard and he is now far from our midst, but fond recollections of the past triumphs that he has enabled us to enjoy, are the ties that bind him to our hearts stronger than hoops of steel.

When next he returns to our campus to view again the scene of his labors, he may rest assured that his will be a most hearty welcome, and "Three cheers and a tiger" will be given by the wearers of the Orange and Blue, with such enthusiasm as has never been felt before.

HERE AND THERE.

Speaking of dangerous sports and amusements, besides football "there are others." Under certain conditions dancing is one of them. A case in point occurred in New York the other day. Edward Mackin was waltzing on a waxed floor with a woman who weighed 200 pounds. The whirling made the woman dizzy. She creaned almost too far to one side. Edward tried to let her down lightly, but slipped and fell under her. The shock of impact upon the floor was diminished, but Edward received injuries from which he died.—Exchange.

A professor of systematic divinity, being unable to hear his class, the following notice was given. "The professor being ill, requests me to say: The seniors may keep on through purgatory, and the middle class continue the descent into hell, until further notice from the professor."

We learn, with much regret, that the Glomerata board is about to "hang fire," all on account of the indisposition of a select few to begin work or to attend meetings. It is no small job you have on your hands, worthy editors, and harmony in your work is essential to true success.

The student body is looking for a great book from you this year and you can give it to them if you start in time and work harmoniously. It is generally the case in work of this sort that a few will have to do all of the work; but even in that case, the others, if they will not work, need not drag along and hold the others back.

Don't drag—either get to work, and earnest work, or quit. Don't stand still, don't drag—to do either is to go backwards or fail completely.

To the Subscribers.

The Business Manager has been very lenient to all the boys in regard to the Orange and Blue. But now we have reached the point where "Patience ceases to be a virtue," so when he comes to you please be prepared to pay. We are endeavoring to give you a good paper, but as you well know we can't do it without money. Bear this in mind and when he comes around next week have your dollar awaiting him.

Thanksgiving Hop.

By far the most delightful social event of the session was the Hop given at Thomas Hall Thursday evening Nov. 25th. Though the occasion had been looked forward to with keen anticipation for many weeks, yet the pleasure and enjoyment surpassed all expectations. The evening was one of unalloyed pleasure, but with such beautiful and graceful dancers as were the young ladies present, and with such inspiring music as pealed forth from Washington's string band the occasion could not have been otherwise. At a late hour the merry throng dispersed, all voting this one of the most successful and enjoyable dances ever given in Auburn.

Mesdames Dozier and Burke kindly acted in the capacity of chaperones. These ladies have ever shown a willingness to add to the young peoples pleasure and to them we extend our most heartfelt thanks with the assurance that their thoughtful kindnesses are appreciated to the fullest extent.

The following were present:—
Miss Mary Thomas with J. C. Abernathy; Miss Marriion McClellan with Geo. Wrigley; Miss Laura Spencer with Jno. Purifoy; Miss Mary Mac Foreman with E. S. George; Miss Margaret Clayton with G. M. Holley; Miss Sallie Morrisette with P. M. McIntyre; Miss Alma Joseph with G. M. Wheeler; Miss Helen Dozier with J. B. Hobdy; Miss Kate Lane with E. B. Joseph; Miss Lottie Lane with C. W. Stewart; Miss Maude Burke with C. W. Minge; Miss Juliet Hooper with J. F. Dobbin; Miss Lula Moore with F. L. Tate; Miss Mary Drake with W. K. Armstrong; Miss Julia Moore with A. C. Vandiver.
Stags, J. S. Paden, H. E. Memminger, F. W. Hare, W. D. Wills, J. B. Shives, B. H. McQueen, B. O. Minge, J. W. Heisman and M. A. Moore.

The Conversation Club.

The last regular meeting of the Club was held Tuesday November 23rd at the residence of Mrs. Reese. Prof. Dugger read a very interesting paper on the works of Chas. Kingsley, which excited much favorable criticism.

Mr. Heisman recited several selections from Shakespeare, showing his ability as an elocutionist to be unquestionable. One of the principal features of the evening was a trio sung, by Misses Mamie and Lula Moore and Miss McClellan, which was greatly admired by the cultured audience present.

On December 7th the Club will celebrate its 10th anniversary with an unusually fine program, at the residence of Dr. P. H. Mell.

In Germany, one man in 213 goes to college; in Scotland, one in 520; in the United States, one in 2,000, and in England one in 5,000.—Ex.

Auburn Club of the '97 Football Team.

On November 3, after the disbanding of the football team for this season, a meeting of the Varsity and subs was held and a permanent organization was effected, under the name of the Auburn Club of the '97 Football Team. The members are pledged to do all in their power for the upbuilding of athletics in Auburn in the future. Circular letters concerning the condition of athletics, news of the members, etc., are to be sent to each member every year, and three years from last commencement a reunion is to be held in Auburn to which every member is pledged to come if possible.

The members of the club are:
J. B. Hobdy, President.
W. B. Stokes, Vice-President.
G. N. Mitcham, Recording Secretary.
John Purifoy, Corresponding Secretary.
J. W. Heisman, Historian.
J. C. Abernathy, J. W. Culver, G. O. Dickey, A. H. Feagin, J. L. Glenn, J. H. Glover, W. P. Holcombe, E. D. Huguley, W. G. Jackson, J. L. Marcum, L. M. Meriweather, J. S. Paden, C. M. Pearce, J. A. Penton, H. A. Skeggs, G. H. Thomson, W. D. Wills, J. R. Vann.
A committee to arrange program for next meeting, three years hence, was appointed, consisting of J. B. Hobdy, John Purifoy, Jr., and W. D. Wills.

Some Thanksgivings.

DRAWBACKS.

BRIEF LOCALS.

George P. Bondurant '95 has matriculated at the University of Mississippi. He expects to take the full law course.

Prof. Chas. B. Glenn '91 of Evergreen, Ala., made a short visit home, Thanksgiving.

Dr. Bragaw's new hot soda fountain is a "thing of beauty and a joy forever."

Miss Margaret Clayton spent Thanksgiving in the city as the guest of Miss Fannie Toomer.

Saturday afternoon Mr. J. W. Heisman, the foot-ball coach, left Auburn for Toledo, Ohio.

Prescriptions carefully compounded at Dr. Bragaw's.

The sum of seventy dollars was realized on the baby show last week.

Returning from North Carolina Robt. S. Parker stopped over several days in Auburn. He left for home Sunday.

Maj. I. F. Culver was in town last week to attend a meeting of the trustees of the Experiment Station.

Primley's Pepsin, Stick California Fruit and several other brands first class chewing gum's at Dr. Bragaw's.

On Thursday Nov. 18, a joint meeting of the Confederate Veterans and the Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy was held at the residence of Dr. Mell. Col. S. S. Scott read an original poem entitled "The Southern Cavalier" and Col. W. J. Samford read a paper on "Stonewall Jackson."

First class smoking tobacco at Dr. Bragaw's.

Bishop and Mrs. Wilmer of Mobile have been the guests of Dr. Broun for the past week. We are sorry to learn that the Bishop has been seriously ill, for some days.

For hair brushes, tooth brushes, toilet soap, etc., go to Dr. Bragaw's.

Mr. R. W. Collins is now rapidly convalescing, much to the delight of his numerous friends. At one time his condition was extremely serious, but medical skill and careful nursing have happily triumphed, and "Snap" will soon be himself again. Owing to his weak condition, requiring rest and quiet, he has resigned his position as Assistant in Agriculture, and will return to his home as soon as possible. We regret to see him go, for "He's a jolly, good fellow," and will be greatly missed.

Only pure whipped cream is used in Dr. Bragaw's soda.

Mr. W. P. Leonard of the class of '97, has returned to Auburn as Assistant in Agriculture, vice Collins resigned. He vociferously denies that he was married a short time ago.

Miss Marrian McClellan, who has been visiting the family of Col. M. V. Moore, returned to her home in Atlanta Saturday. Her beauty and captivating manner won her many Auburn admirers, and her departure was greatly regretted.

After a night's hard study take Bromo Seltzer for that headache, at Bragaw's soda fount.

During the last two weeks there has been several burglaries and hold-ups reported to the town authorities. The old aphorism—"An idle brain is the devil's workshop," should be borne in mind and some of our unemployed, indolent colored citizens be requested to obtain employment or leave town.

With a frost that kills out the yellow fever germs comes that ever ready cold. Dr. Bragaw's Anti-Grip is the best thing for it.

Miss Mary Drake returned to College Park Monday, after a brief visit to her parents. Her friends are delighted to note that she is meeting with great success in her musical studies, her superb playing at the concert Friday evening demonstrating this fact.

Tablets, students note books and a full line of box paper and college stationery at Bragaw's.

At the last meeting of the Athletic Advisory Board, Mr. F. W. Hare was elected manager of the foot-ball team, and Mr. E. B. Joseph, manager of the base ball team. This means that Auburn will again be well represented in these two important branches of College Athletics.

Blanke Bros. fine chocolate is excelled by nothing.

Mr. Laurie Moore, class of '95, spent Thanksgiving Day with his parents in Auburn. He is located at Fernandino, Fla., where he has a lucrative position.

"Hot stuff," did you say? Yes, and it's at Dr. Bragaw's new soda fount.

Miss Laura Spencer, of Columbus, was the admired guest of Miss Helen Dozier for a few days during the past week.

That hacking cough can be cured by a timely use of Syrap of White Pine Compound, at Dr. Bragaw's.

Dr. "Bat" Taylor paid us a visit last week. He is a Professor in a flourishing school at Wetumpka now.

Dr. Bragaw's new hot soda fount is a little jewel.

Mrs. Hollis left for home Saturday. She has been on a visit to her son, Col. M. O. Hollis.

Ask Jim Allen how he likes the hind leg of a Welsh "Rabbit."

Dr. Bragaw has just received a fresh line of Blanke & Bros. fine candies.

Mrs. Swanson and her granddaughter, Miss Alma Joseph, left for Montgomery Saturday, after refugeeing with us for a while.

Somebody please tell Capt. "Ship" Stewart, what time we have 5 o'clock roll call.

We are glad to see the Colonel out again after a recent illness.

Saboroso, Cuba, X Rays, Staehelberg's, Alladins, Barister cigars at Bragaw's.

The Concert.

On the evening of Nov. 29, at the invitation of the faculty, a most delightful concert was given in Langdon Hall by Miss Mamie Harrison of Opelika, assisted by local talent. It is putting it mildly to say that the occasion was a thoroughly charming one. The large hall was filled with college-folks and towns-people who attested their keen appreciation by frequent and hearty applause.

Our community is to be congratulated on the presence of so rare a quality of talent coupled with so rare a degree of culture; all joined too, with a so obliging and generous spirit.

Every piece was rendered artistically, with fine shades of expression, and most exquisite delicacy of execution. To a common man in the audience it is very wonderful, this fairy like touch and this elfin-like sound.

Perhaps in Mozart's "Aria" did Miss Harrison's clear bell-like notes of the upper register show their highest and lightest quality. They sang themselves pure and true. "Sandmaenchen" was a dainty lullaby and was given in a crooning, tender way that was delicious.

In Tosti's "Goodbye," the compass and range of the singer's voice was superb, while its gentleness and sweetness appealed throughout "The day is done." A more delightful interpretation of poetic thought and feeling by a melodious, sympathetic voice one does not often hear, nor care to hear than "The day is done" as sung by Miss Harrison.

In all the essentials of a most delightful voice, Miss Harrison is richly endowed, and to these rich endowments has been added almost the last touch of art.

Miss Phillips, the accompanist, deserves all praise. Subordinating herself entirely to the singer, she really accompanies in spirit every turn of the singer's voice and feeling.

The selections of Miss Drake and Miss Black for the violin and the piano were brilliant and attractive and were rendered in a most attractive and brilliant manner.

The orchestra was up to its high water mark and afforded much enjoyment.

The following was the programme rendered:

Overture College Orchestra.
a. Aria, "Nocce di Figaro." Mozart.
b. "Nina." Pergolesi.
3. "When I'm big I'll be a soldier."

MISS HARRISON.
"Scene du Ballet." Violin Solo.

MISS BLACK.
a. "Du bist wie eine Blume." Schuman.
b. "Mondnacht." Schuman.
c. "Sandmaenchen." Brahms.

MISS HARRISON.
Selection arranged for the piano

MISS DRAKE.
a. "Connais tu le pays." ("Mignon") Ambroise Thomas.
b. "Goodbye." Tosti.

MISS HARRISON.
Violin Solo.

MISS DRAKE.
"The day is done and the darkness." Balfe.

MISS HARRISON.
College Orchestra.

COLLEGE NEWS.

The Washington and Lee football team had games arranged with both Vanderbilt and Sewanee, but failed to put in appearance at either place.

It is reported that football will be prohibited at Vanderbilt next season.

The average weight of Sewanee's Varsity is 159 4-14 pounds and the average age is 20 3-13 years.

At Denver University chapel exercise are conducted by ministers of various denominations for a week at a time.

Tulane University and Center College, Kentucky have been relieved of suspension from the S. I. A. A., the University of Tennessee has been blacklisted on football for 1897, and the Georgia Technological School has been elected a member of the Association. The University of Georgia has trouble about the state appropriations for this year. An effort is being made to separate the Agricultural and Mechanical College from the University, and set up a separate college. Friends of the University claim the fight against the appropriations is partly denominational.

Hon. Seth Lowe has withdrawn his resignation as President of Columbia University.

As a penalty for failing to score against Yale, the Harvard Varsity was ordered to take the "H" from their sweaters etc. The "H" was to be worn again if Pennsylvania was beaten. Now it seems that Harvard must wait a long time for the "H."

The Yale Glee Club reports a balance of $3,000 for 1896.

Elijah Covlet, born in London, 1609, graduated from Lincoln, Oxford 1626, taught the first grammar school at Cambridge about 1643, Cotton Mather being one of his pupils.

The Michigan State Legislature made a permanent appropriation of $122,000 a year for the Michigan University. Provision was made for completing the Library building which is to cost $420,000. The appropriation for the Historical Society Library was increased from $6,000 to $15,000.

Of the 672 students at the University of Zurich, 141 are women. Of these 128 are foreigners.

When the Moon Was on a Jag.

The moon was jolly with fulness as he staggered along through the sky. While the stars were winking in mischief as Paul and his girl strode by—Venus nudged Mars in the short ribs and chuckled with all her might. As she pointed to Cupid kneeling concealed by the shadows of night—His bow was poised for the target none other than the heart of Paul—But the sound of his moon beam bow string was drowned in a heavenly squall. As Mars, on the spur of the moment, cried "Isn't that girl a peach!" "Why doesn't the silly bumpkin take the blessings within his reach?" Paul must have caught the idea, for his left arm stole from his side And circled the waist of the maiden as a groom would hug his bride. His eyes had left the sky now and were fixed on her orbs of blue Where mischief making Cupid had planted a twinkle or two—Her lips were gently parted, and her breath like the dew of the morn, Seemed to tempt him like forty demons to taste of the sweet thereon—So he bent his head still lower, and increased the force of his hug—But ah! his dream was broken, like a shattered vase was his mug: For the clenched fist of the maiden, swift as the wings of a sigh, Had shattered the "phiz" of poor Paulie, and given him "one in the eye."

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The International Committee now has a secretary employed who devotes his entire time to fostering Bible study in the Association.

We appreciate the large congregation of Auburn people that met us at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. We went on our way rejoicing for we felt that all the good people were with us.

Do you realize what a great thing the Association is? Did you know that it was organized in almost every nation of the world and even in a great many of the Pacific islands? At one of its meetings last summer there were gathered together representatives from twenty-seven different nations of the world. Sometimes our well meaning efforts are not appreciated and even disparaged but when we think of the host on our side we take courage. But we have aught against no one. We know it is the same thoughtlessness that often leads us into error which causes you to do wrong too.

Some of the older students, when spoken to about joining the Association, say "I would have joined long ago if I had only been invited." Dear friends, we love you. We want you in the Association. We would rejoice to see you come and join us. We feel and appreciate the buoyant spirit that enthuses the heart of every young man. Let these words sink into your hearts. Whether you are for us or against us, whether you join us or not, we want you to join. Never forget, that there is not a minute, in the day that we would not be glad to greet you as a member of the Association. "He that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad."

In as serious a manner as possible we would like to impress upon the members of our Association the importance of Bible study. A man can't call himself educated unless he knows the Bible. Ignorance of it is a serious disadvantage to the ordinary reader. In a recent issue of one of the magazines which reaches our library there were forty-nine direct quotations from or references to nineteen different books of the Bible. "The Bible is not only the crown of literature; it is the science of sciences, the core of knowledge." But there is still another reason why we should study the Bible! 'It is the source of our power over the world. It is that message of God which subdues our rebellious hearts, breaks our stubborn wills, and turns us from the paths of sin into the ways of holiness.' Let us be Bible students.

Big College vs. Little College.

Big college gives its graduates a reputation; little college gets a reputation from its graduates.

Big college makes specialists; little college develops all round men.

Big college breeds wit; little college breeds grit.

In big college there is finer apparatus; in little college, at least, every piece is thoroughly used.

With big college it is hard to get in and easy to get on; with little college very easy to get in, but much harder to get on.

Big college has more books; in little college the leaves are all cut.

Big college makes more acquaintances; little college more friends.

Little college and big college both have baseball teams; in big college more men look on and howl.

Professors in big colleges are more learned; in little college (of necessity) less lazy.—Ex.

A 'Possum Hunt.

One of the post graduate "Professors" went 'possum hunting last week and varied and exciting were his experiences, to hear him tell it. The first 'possum treed turned out to be a skunk, and our "professor" says he doesn't want to run up against any more such 'possums.

Then the dogs ran a "hant" for an hour or two, and our "professor's" hair is still partly on end. We are unable to learn if the "hant" was treed, as the "professor's" reminiscences do not touch on that.

Considerably the worst for wear and laden with the spoils of the trip he arrived in Auburn in time for the benediction Sunday.

New Officers.

The foot-ball men had a meeting Saturday and elected Mr. John Purifoy, Jr., Captain of our 'Varsity for the season of '98. John has played a half-back on our team for the past three seasons and has made a great reputation for himself. Combined with his abilities as a player, is his popularity with the plapers, and these qualities give promise of a successful captain.

The executive ability of Mr. F. W. Hare, our new Manager, is too well known to require further commendation. Needless to say the pessimistic predictions that foot-ball is dead at Auburn, will now be recalled by the ignoramuses that made them.

Bismark has said that "one-third of the students in the German universities destroy themselves by dissipation, one-third wear themselves out by overwork, and the rest govern Europe."

Dr. Jordan gives the following classification of the American college students: "One part go to the dogs, one part to the grave, and the rest are the strength of the republic."

Senior German Club.

A meeting of the Club was held on Saturday last, when the following officers were elected:—H. E. Memminger—President, J. B. Shivers—Vice President and Leader, F. W. Hare—Sec. and Treas.
